Budget Development Process – Continued

1. The Executive Director will meet with each department Director and review the department's budget requests. During this review WACOSA's program goals and strategic plan will be considered to assure that the overall budget supports the Organization's mission and future direction.
2. The Director of Finance calculates annual income by:
 - Completing a projection of service fee income based on anticipated units of service as well as projected per diems and DEED rates.
 - Projecting vocational income from business contracts by considering current business contracts and relationships, the current business climate and projected efforts for expansion of business opportunities.
 - Projecting grants and other donations based on historical information and/or special projects for which grant dollars will be sought.
 - Projecting investment income based on dollars invested and the types of investments held.
3. The Director of Finance will calculate and distribute expenses to appropriate program and vocational activities by:
 - Reviewing previous year's history as well as year-to-date history on each line item.
 - Gathering information on estimated increases, particularly large expenditures.
 - Completing spreadsheet with wages and compensation including:
 - Allocating wage increases based on dollars available or legislative directive.
 - Expensing compensation for the direct care staff to the applicable programs.
 - Expensing administrative compensation costs to programs and vocational activities through costing process including income generated by each activity, time devoted to each activity, or other allocation methods deemed reasonable.
 - Completing a budget worksheet and attaching details for each line item (if necessary).
4. Each program and vocational activity is set up with its own cost centers and a spreadsheet is developed detailing expenses and income for the various activities or programs.
5. The Director of Finance completes a list of anticipated capital equipment expenditures and the estimated useful life of these expenditures based on the Director's departmental summaries and the Organization's need.

Program Accounts Receivable Procedures (Attachment C)

- Client Service Billing

Client billings are based on the Client's daily attendance taken by staff. Services (including transportation) are billed at various intervals and individualized rates. Attendance is entered into the WES program by the direct program staff. Program Manager or designated staff review and submits to accounting on a weekly basis. The WES entries are reviewed for accuracy and client units are entered into the necessary accounting systems at month-end by the Program Staff Accountant. The County and private pay accounts are processed on or before the 10th of each month. Medical Assistance is typically processed by the second cutoff date designated by the State.

- Extended Employment Billings

County billings: Client billings are based on hourly rates. The hourly rates are charged when WACOSA provides follow-along services for clients on individual placements and when the client receives services at internal program sites. (Attendance is submitted to accounting in the same manner as the general client billings.)

State extended employment billings through the DEED grant: State billing is based on the number of hours the clients are employed. Client work hours are documented and identified as center based work, supported employment or community based. Separate State determined rates are charged for each type of employment classification. This information is documented on the client time sheets and submitted to accounting by the 16th and the first of the month. Supported employment hours and client check stubs are collected and submitted to accounting by the 15th of every month.

WACOSA

- ThriftWorks! inventory is received through in-kind donations. These donated goods are sorted between sellable market bins, unsellable recyclables and refuse. Advanced staff trained in thrift store market pricing use standard pricing models and guidelines to sort sellable items. These pre-sorted sellable items are then tagged and prepared for the retail store by paid Clients and/or volunteers. On an annual basis the inventory value is adjusted per a calculation performed by the Director of Finance which is reflected on the financial statements.
